

School Ambassador Training

120 minutes of powerful morale, motivation and relationship building that will propel your school into the minds and hearts of your community. Bring the School Ambassador Training workshop to your school and speak with One Voice

Go Forth ~ Be Visible

Teachers are important ambassadors for their classroom, their colleagues, their school, and the education profession. As a school employee, wherever you go, whatever you do, how you dress, how you speak, what you say — 24 hours every day — you are an ambassador for your school.

Being a visible symbol for education is a big responsibility. Assume the responsibility and you positively impact perceptions of your classroom, your colleagues, your school, and the education profession.

The School Ambassador Training Program provides schools with a foundation for greatly improving the relationship between your school and all of its customers - from teachers and students, to parents and administrative staff to the broader community.

Speak with One Voice

Cheering for each other

When everyone comes together and speaks as one, we're able to communicate our message in an impactful way. We all have many individual voices, but it's through speaking in the same way with a consistent voice that we're more likely to be heard. Not only does the message break through the clutter – others begin to listen more thoughtfully to what's being said. As a part of this school, we have the privilege and the honour to speak as one – for many.

Bring the School Ambassador Training Program to your school in 2016

This fabulous after school or training day activity is perfect for generating excitement about your school and the people it serves.

This hands-on participatory workshop will provide principals with:

- Improved staff morale
- Better relationships with parents
- Strategies to change the way your school is seen
- Dozens of focused ideas to highlight the success of your school
- Vehicles to take your positive messages into family homes and beyond.
- Support for new programs and services.

The School Ambassador Training Program is delivered by passionate educator and presenter Michael Auden. Michael brings a life time of experience as a teacher into this emotionally charged and practical workshop. Participants will be engaged, challenged, empowered and inspired to find the school spirit elements that highlight your school as a wonderful place to learn, work, and celebrate.

- 1 What's great about our school - an interactive and fun-filled activity using the 60 plus What's Great about Our School cards.
- 2 Story-telling is a powerful way to raise emotional capital in your school and the brilliant work happening each day in your classrooms.
- 3 Building a Collegial Staff room will remind teachers that being a professional teacher carries with it a range of responsibilities and opportunities.
- 4 Brand your staff - an empowering and clarifying session to take control of how people experience your school.
- 5 Adoption Agency - this session will show how each one of us can go above and beyond to show that we care about our students and our school.
- 6 Be an Empowering Teacher - here we explore those characteristics that make each teacher an important agent of empowerment.

- 7 How many Champions can we find in our school? - we take a look at the passions and skills of the staff, students and parents.
- 8 Ambassador Training Cards - the 60+ School Ambassador cards are a highlight of the School Ambassador Training program. It is saved till last to build a fantastic finale that helps each participant to commit to school improvement and school spirit.

Feedback

Dear Michael,

Many thanks for your excellent presentation - I am hearing teachers recount some of your presentation highlights now with relevance to individuals and groups of students
Julie - Principal

The best workshop I have attended in 35 years of teaching.

Bill - Sydney

You know your stuff Michael, plus it was so easy sharing the time with you as I learned new things and was reminded of the basics that I had forgotten about.

Louise - Adelaide

You gave everyone something to work with during the coming term. Excellent presentation.

Jenny - Deputy Principal

After your stunning presentation at the conference, I will be recommending to my school that you present a workshop to our staff.

Hilary - Year level coordinator
